EGU Presidents

EGU has a President and a Vice President

The President-elect becomes vice president for one year, then serves two years as President, and one year as Vice President again, for a total of 4 years

European
Geosciences Union

Division on Tectonics and Structural Geology

EGU Council

The Council is the highest decision-making body in EGU

The Council consists of the President (Chair), Vice President, General Secretary, Treasurer, Division Presidents and Executive Secretary (ex officio member)

EGU Divisions

EGU has presently 22
Divisions

Division Presidents are elected for a two-year term and can be re-elected once, for a total of 4 years, from General Assembly to General Assembly

European
Geosciences Union

EGU Divisions

Divisions decide their internal organization at their annual open business meeting during the General Assembly

In addition to the President, they have Vice President, Secretaries and other Division Board members which are selected for 2 years, renewable

Aims and Scope

Solid Earth (SE) is an international scientific journal dedicated to the publication and discussion of multidisciplinary research on the composition, structure and dynamics of the Earth from the surface to the deep interior at all spatial and temporal scales.

The journal invites short communications, research articles, review articles and commentaries on all aspects of the Solid Earth, comprising of observational, experimental, and theoretical investigations.

The main subject areas include geochemistry, geodesy, geodynamics, geomorphology, geophysics, magma and rock physics, magnetism, mineral physics, palaeontology, sedimentology, seismology, soil system science, stratigraphy, structural geology, tectonophysics and volcanology.
