6. Presentation of Division Medallists

EGU Petrus Peregrinus MEDAL

This medal has been established by the Division on Earth Magnetism & Rock Physics in recognition of the scientific achievements of Petrus Peregrinus, to be awarded for outstanding scientific contributions in the field of geomagnetism, planetary magnetism and palaeomagnetism.

Committee

Chair: David Gubbins

Members: Division President

Three-yr last medalists

The Petrus Peregrinus Medal is awarded to Peter L. Olson for his insightful contributions to our understanding of the core mantle interactions by combining theory, numerical models and laboratory fluid dynamics model.

6. Presentation of Division Medallists

EGU Louis Néel MEDAL

This medal has been established by the Division on Earth Magnetism & Rock Physics in recognition of the scientific achievements of Louis Eugène Felix Néel , who shared the 1970 Nobel Prize of Physics for his fundamental research and discoveries concerning antiferromagnetism. This medal is reserved for individuals in recognition of outstanding achievements in rock magnetism and rock physics.

Committee

Chair: Philip Meredith

Members: Division President

Three last medallists

The Louis Néel Medal is awarded to Ernest Henry Rutter for his major experimental and field contributions to our fundamental understanding of the deformation behaviour of the Earth's lithosphere. In particular, his systematic laboratory studies have led to a greatly improved understanding of natural rock deformation.
