5. MEDALS & Nominations

EGU Plinius Medal

This medal was established by the Natural Hazards Division to recognise interdisciplinary natural-hazard research. The name of Gaius Plinius Secundus (~23 – 79 A.D.) acknowledges the role of our ancestors working to improve both knowledge and mitigation of natural hazards.

From 2002–2003 (EGS) and 2004–2011 (EGU) it was awarded to early career scientists.

Since 2012 the medal recognizes interdisciplinary research in natural hazards by active scientists. Its is awarded to outstanding active scientists who meet the following criteria: outstanding research achievements in fields related with natural hazards, important interdisciplinary activity in two or more fields related with this topic, and research that has been applied in the mitigation of risks from natural hazards.

An Early Career Scientist (ECS) is a student, a PhD candidate, or a practising scientist who received their highest certificate (e.g. BSc, MSc or PhD) within the past seven years. The seven-year period can be extended to allow for periods when the scientist was not working in science because of, but not limited to, caring and/or parental responsibilities, disability, personal illness, community obligations or national service. For the purpose of the awards the nominee should satisfy one of the above criteria by 1 January of the year when the award is presented.

EGU awards & medals

- » We encourage all members to contribute to the awards program by nominating suitable candidates
- » When nominating think about people who may have been overlooked in your discipline

Nominations and awards (Division and Union)

Over the past years the fraction of awards and medals obtained by women has increased. This is due to the increase in nominations.

6. EGU & NH Meetings

EGU Galileo Conferences

- The EGU Galileo Conferences address well-focused cutting-edge topics at the frontier of geosciences research. The conferences are informal: the state-of-the-art is outlined in keynote presentations designed to trigger in-depth discussion of important aspects of the conference topic. EGU provides full organisational support to the EGU Galileo Conferences, thereby allowing organising committees to focus on the scientific aspects of the conference.
- Submission periods are usually from 1. December until end of February of the following year

EGU Co-Sponsored Meetings

- The EGU meetings programme is dedicated to the pursuit of progress in all areas of the Earth, planetary and space sciences through the co-sponsoring of a number meetings. We strive for excellence in the organisation and running of conference series, topical meetings, workshops, training schools and external meetings for the benefit of all scientists. We pay special attention to the needs of early career researchers, and help organisers achieve financial stability, visibility, and/or access to a larger target community.
- Details here: <https://www.egu.eu/meetings/support-request/>
- Submission periods are usually from 1. June – 15. August every year
